

Roland Boole (pictured) is a poet, artist and author from Kilburn. He will be regularly contributing poems from his extensive collection within the pages of All Things Local. Roland's first contribution is taken from his soon to be published book entitled "Verse of Love you Wish you Had Said or Heard".

EVERY PIECE OF MY HEART IS YOURS

If my heart were free to give
I would give it again to you,
but you already have it
along with my love so deep and true.
If my heart came in six pieces
and it was possible to give it away in parts,
I would still give you every piece,
to make a complete loving heart.
