

editor's message...

Welcome to the October/November edition of All Things Local.

Firstly, I need to let you know of an important development, but don't worry ... the development doesn't affect this magazine. Well, there is one very tiny change which you may have noticed on the front cover.

This magazine will now be known as All Things Local Village Edition. The reason for this is because I have now launched a second edition of the magazine. Over the past few months, I have received lots of requests from residents and businesses in Belper to publish something just for them. So, this month heralds the launch of an All Things Local Belper Edition. This means that collectively, All Things Local now distributes to 18,000 households and businesses locally... and it's still run by just one person!

The prize crossword on page 6 is always very popular and in this issue, you can win a carvery meal for two at a choice of restaurants – either The Spotted Cow at Holbrook or The Spanker Inn at Nether Heage.

For those looking at different ways to relax, you could win a Reiki session with a Reiki master – turn to page 42 for details.

I have given the opportunity to another 15 year old student to write their own column in All Things Local for a year. I'd like to extend a big welcome to Jessica Davies, a pupil at The Ecclesbourne School, Duffield. Jessica's first article can be found on page 65.

Thank you for mentioning this magazine when you respond to adverts – you are directly helping to keep business local which is a good thing for our communities especially with the economic climate as it is at the moment.

Have a safe Hallowe'en and Bonfire Night and don't forget to put your clocks back on Sunday 26 October.
