

Your Perfect Setting East Midlands

Jackie Parkin (pictured) from Smalley owns Your Perfect Setting East Midlands - a small family run business designed to take the pressure off when organizing your wedding. Jackie who is married to Ken and has two West Highland Terriers called Mollie and Fergus is fast becoming well known locally for the variety of services she can offer.

Jackie provides a venue dressing service and can also provide coordinated linen, stationery and accessories.

Jackie comments: "I make it my business to ensure that my clients' weddings have that essential balance of 'unique personality' and 'just as expected' that makes it stand out from the crowd, while keeping their family, friends and guests at ease." Jackie continues: "I provide bespoke products to suit the needs of the bride and groom – professional yet personal items that they just can't find elsewhere".

Weddings are not the only event that can benefit from Jackie's experience and skill. Corporate or promotional events, special birthdays, anniversaries or a christening or engagement can all benefit from Jackie's expertise.

Caroline & Lee Roberts of Kilburn recently got married at Shottle Hall – here's what they had to say about Your Perfect Setting East Midlands: "We can't thank Jackie enough for her hard work towards making our venue look perfect on the occasion of our wedding. The table settings and chair dressings were absolutely stunning. Jackie is a lovely, down-to-earth person and we wouldn't hesitate in recommending her to anyone planning their big day."
