

Editor's message...

Welcome to this new look, festive fourth issue of All Things Local or indeed, if you are a resident of Duffield or Milford, welcome to your first copy. All Things Local is your FREE, independent community magazine and directory of local businesses. You will receive a copy delivered through your letterboxes every eight weeks.

You can find out more about All Things Local on page 59. This special profile is to coincide with the launch of my new "Butterfly logo" (I hope you like it) and the launch of my new website www.allthingslocal.co.uk. I extend my thanks to local web designer Jonathan Crouch for working so hard to create this site for me.

See the Contents below for details of where you can find this issue's competitions – there's lots of them!

One of my new columnists is Paul Winfield, Projectionist at The Ritz Cinema, Belper. Paul will be keeping you up-to-date with the world of film. Turn to page 27 for Paul's first article.

From this issue onwards, you have the opportunity to nominate a friend or family member in the community to receive a beautiful bouquet of fresh flowers courtesy of All Things Local and The Flower Shop – turn to page 47 for details.

This magazine is designed to help you choose from an array of services and products supplied by local businesses – when you call them please make sure you mention All Things Local. If you run a local business, then you should consider advertising – it's a cost effective way of reaching your local market.

Enjoy reading this festive issue and I wish you all A Very Merry Christmas and A Happy and Prosperous New Year.
