

Editor's message...

Welcome to the April/May edition of All Things Local – issue number six. Yes, six issues All Things Local will soon be celebrating its first anniversary. Where did that time go? It's been a fantastic year for many of the businesses who advertise with me, but more about that in the next issue.

Turn to pages 10 and 11 for details of a great family fun day out at Belper Steam and Vintage Event. Although this doesn't take place until June it's well worth noting on the calendar. I went along last year and was amazed at the array of stands, exhibitors and arena events taking place – there really is something for everyone.

This magazine is a showcase for the local businesses and services available on your doorstep. As the holiday season approaches, if you're thinking of planning a holiday abroad, turn to page 36 for details of properties (owned by local residents) that are available to rent. If you own a rental property abroad and would like to promote it to over 9,000 readers then please contact me. If you prefer someone else to do the planning for you then your local independent travel agent can be found on page 37.

Thank you to all advertisers and readers for your continued support. Just like you, I am a local person with a genuine interest in the communities into which I distribute. Advertising prices are available to suit most budgets, so if you or anyone you know would like to grow their local client base please just give me a call or email me. I deal with all enquiries personally.

Fingers crossed for some lovely weather over the forthcoming weeks - perhaps you can sit outside in the garden and enjoy reading your copy of All Things Local!

Best wishes
