Save fff's with the Utility Warehouse Discount Club

We are all aware that the economy is very unstable at the moment. Job security is at an all time low and expenses are soaring out of control.

As more and more people struggle with the constant rising costs of living:- fuel, food, utilities, etc. it is time for everyone to take a serious look at all the alternatives on the market for keeping outgoings a low as possible.

Dave Brown and Janet Arnold, of Horsley, are proud to be your local distributors for 'Utility Warehouse Discount Club'. They can give you advice on how to receive substantial savings on all your utility bills. Together they are saving the average household an average of £620 per year, and that estimated saving is due to be even greater as fuel costs increase over the coming months.

You will not see large adverts or television promotions that cost £1000's of bill payers' money for 'Utility Warehouse Discount Club', nor will you find them on any price comparison websites that charge vast amounts to utility suppliers out of your money, to have them rotated to be regularly perceived as being the cheapest on the market.
