Hello and welcome to the August/September issue.

Maybe by the time you read this magazine, the weather will be brighter and we will be enjoying the summer sunshine at last! We live in hope...

I do hope that you all enjoyed the last issue of All Things Local and found the new articles of interest.

For those of you with children, turn to page 26 for an easy to enter competition to win a family ticket for four people at Gulliver's Kingdom in Matlock Bath which has recently celebrated its 30th anniversary.

The prize crossword on page 6 is sponsored by Horsley Lodge – it's simple to enter and you could win a meal for two in their newly refurbished restaurant.

It's time to bid farewell to one of my regular columnists – Sam Gregory. Sam has been writing for All Things Local for a year but has now left school and eagerly awaits his exam results ... a nervous time for many! Many thanks to Sam for his valued contributions. Turn to page 25 where Sam reflects on school days. The opportunity now exists for another budding journalist to write for this magazine – details can be found at the end of Sam's Column.

Many advertisers are reporting that they are receiving an excellent response from readers of this magazine – so thank you for turning to the magazine when looking for local products and services and don't forget to mention All Things Local when you do call an advertiser.

Remember that if you run a business, I offer an affordable way for you to present yourself to 9,000 local households – with prices from just £25 per issue. Please give me a call or send me an email for further information.

Wishing you the very best for August and September and if you're going away on holiday, have a wonderful time!
