

Karl Chamberlain Electrical Services

Based in Holbrook, Karl Chamberlain Electrical Services has over 23 years of qualified experience in the trade, and covers all your domestic and commercial electrical needs from an additional socket to a full rewire.

As an Approved Member of the NICEIC (National Inspection Council for Electrical Installation Contracting) this popular local electrical company has to comply with stringent safety rules and the Electrical Safety Standard BS7671 of the IEE wiring regulations. Domestic properties comply with Building regulations Part P. Part P registered electricians are competent to self certify that their work complies to building regulations, where Approved contractors have the qualifications and expertise to test other peoples work, mainly for Periodic Inspections and landlord surveys.

Karl Chamberlain Electrical Services can also undertake other electrical services such as Portable Appliance Testing, Periodic and Visual Inspections, landlord surveys, heating and ventilation systems plus communication systems which include Phone,

Data, Intercoms, and CCTV.

The company has recently become a member of BNI, the most successful business referral organisation in the world.

Karl Chamberlain (pictured) comments: "We pride ourselves on customer service and offer a professional reliable service which keeps our customers coming back time after time."
