

The Bell Public House, Smalley

Nestled in the heart of Smalley, this delightful traditional pub is well worth a visit. Landlady, Angela Bonsall (pictured behind the bar) and her staff, guarantee you a very warm welcome.

An extensive menu and wine list makes The Bell an ideal choice for a meal out or if it's just a drink you require The Bell is perfect. Real Ale lovers can choose from up to 8 real ales and sit comfortably in the knowledge that this establishment has previously won the CAMRA Real Ale Pub of the Year Award. This Cask Marque accredited pub means that you can be assured you will receive your pint of ale in perfect condition.

The Bell operates a walk-in policy for food and offers a large, attractive beer garden in which families with children are very welcome.

If you have visitors and are looking for somewhere to accommodate them, The Bell can offer 3 beautifully appointed cottage-style apartments.
