

Profile: Connections Introduction Agency

Derbyshire lady, Victoria Edwards (pictured) runs Connections Introduction Agency. Connections is a long-established, traditional introduction agency with an excellent reputation for introducing compatible unattached people.

If you want to meet someone special but are fed up with leaving it to chance or feel daunted by internet dating, singles events and personal columns which have few, if any safeguards, a traditional introduction agency may well be the answer.

Established in 1987, Connections is friendly and caring and belongs to the professional Association of British Introduction Agencies. All members are interviewed and live in Derbyshire, Staffordshire, Nottinghamshire, and Leicestershire, so unlike many agencies, Connections' membership is not nationwide and you won't be expected to travel all over the country to meet someone. Aged between 30 and 70+ members come from all walks of life, are unattached and are genuinely seeking a meaningful and long term relationship.

Now is a good time to meet new people before winter sets in - so why not send for a free brochure today by calling Victoria on 01629 636777.
